

Polysolar P102 – Project Manager

Polysolar is an award winning Cleantech business from Cambridge providing unique transparent photovoltaic glass for integration into windows, skylights, balustrades, canopies, greenhouses, and building facades. Our products and technology are being deployed today to meet the growing demand for energy efficient buildings and infrastructure. Our certified products make a positive impact on climate change and will become a significant source of renewable energy in the future.

Transparent photovoltaic glass is one of the most significant innovations to occur in the architectural glazing market this century. Its set to become one of the fastest growing sectors in the global $100 Billion glazing industry.

This is a significant opportunity to join one of the most innovative companies in the sector. You will work with the leadership team to build out our Specification and sales platform in the UK with Architects and contractors.

The manager will be based in our Cambridge office will have overall be responsible tendering and technical proposals.

We expect you to have an excellent knowledge of the sector, with specific experience in commercial glazing systems. Photovoltaic experience will not be required as we will provide this.

Main Responsibilities:

- Day to day management of assigned projects once a quotation has been won
- Setting up correct project management systems for filing, programming, client management etc.
- Effective management of the client
- Meeting project budget allocation for materials, gross margin, net margin, manpower allocation or other agreed metrics
- Liaise with architectural and proposal manager and technical team to ensure that the project requirements are correctly understood at the handover stage.
- Management to ensure design meets the specification and budget
- Responsibility for generating technical specifications for the project procurement and breaking down into supplier packages
- Ensure that supplier purchase orders are accurate and compliant. Relevant T&Cs are passed onto our suppliers to protect the business.
- Responsible for the operational H&S requirements of the project including site activities
- Generation supporting documentation for safe/effective project management e.g. RAMS, O&M manuals,
- Overall responsibility for project procurement, fabrication, delivery, installation, commissioning, handover, certification and warranties

What We Offer:

- An exciting career move to work with a leading innovator in the architectural PV glazing sector
- Financially strong company. Recently complete large funding round.
- Strong team culture and access to leadership. Your input will be valued here and you will grow with us.
- Competitive salary/Bonus/benefits/Shares options considered

Job Qualifications:

- Experience in securing and managing multiple projects.
- Related product experience in leading Aluminium glazing systems /commercial glazing expertise/Specialist building envelopes
- Confident, dynamic, active and enthusiastic personality
- Excellent communication and reporting skills.
- Proactive approach to managing
- Architectural/Technical/Electrical/mechanical background, preferably to degree level +
- You will probably be interested in architecture or green energy .You are aspirational and want to contribute to the strategic direction of the company.

Contact our COO Aidan Cumiskey at aidan.cumiskey@polysolar.co.uk

Confidentially guaranteed.

Job Type: Full-time

Experience:

- Technical project mangement role 2-3 years
- Client facing project management role 1-2 years

Licence:

- Driving License

Language:

- English and French